GENERAL GONZALES DEFENDS JUAREZ.

Kill 151 Villa Rebels When They Attack City. Two Villa Generals Are Killed.

Juarez, June 18.—General Francisco Gonzales with 932 men defends Juarez against the attack of 1,600 Villa followers, killing 151 Villa rebels including two Villa generals, according to the official report given out at military headquarters here today.

The official list of government casualties included six officers, thirty-three soldiers and a number of civilians killed or captured by Villa and missing. One battalion had not reported when this report was compiled at General Gonzales' headquarters today.

The two Villa generals said to have been killed were Manuel Castro and Alberto Jimenez. They were identified by papers on their bodies and the insignias of rank on their sombreros.

HAPPY VALLEY

Several from here attended the Sunday school convention at Bethel. Bert Smith and family visited at Clarence Marshall's, Sunday.

Emory Medlin has returned home from France.

There will be all day services at Macedonia church, Sunday, June 22. Everybody come with well filled baskets.

Those who visited at W. S. Medlin's home, Thursday night, were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Goodnight, Dell Mellin and family, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Smith, Messrs. Elzy and Elburn Smith and Miss Effie Smith.

Floyd Inman and family visited James Marshall and family, Sunday. Glen Marshall visited Elburn Smith Saturday night.

Church was well attended at Macedonia, Sunday night.

Miss Effie Smith visited Miss Laura Marshall, Tuesday evening.

RECKLESS DRIVER FINED $75

A. L. Warren, of Pea Ridge, Ark., who was arrested for reckless driving on a public highway, while in an intoxicated condition, was tried before Justice Tom Ferguson, of Purdy. He was found guilty and was fined $75. In view of the fact of Warren's plea of guilty and willingness to pay any damages assessed, his fine was made lower than it would have been.

He ran into a buggy belonging to Amiel Reynaud, Sunday morning wrecking the vehicle and injuring the occupants.

MANY CHAUTAUQUA TICKETS BEING SOLD

The excellent program provided by White & Myers Chautauqua System this year is attracting many people and season tickets are selling rapidly. There promises to be the largest attendance of any assembly at Monett in recent years.

The big tent will be erected on the lots corner Bond and Sixth street. This is a good location, close to the business section and yet far enough away that the street traffic does not interfere with the performance.

The opening entertainment will be given the afternoon of June 27.

WHEAT HARVEST IN FULL BLAST

Wheat harvest in this section is in full blast. So far the weather has been favorable and the reapers are making good headway.

The quantity and quality of the wheat this year have exceeded all expectations. The stand is thick, the stems long and the heads well filled. The rust caused by the rains has not done any appreciable damage.

SOUTH MONETT

Everybody is busy cutting wheat. Mrs. Emory Smith and children, of Cassville, spent the week-end with her mother, Mrs. D. R. Thomas.

Miss Bessie Davis, of Raymond, Kan., is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Tom Lance, this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Planchon and children, of near Cassville, spent Saturday and Sunday with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Ami Cuendet.

Mrs. Thos. Walton visited, Sunday, with her son, Fred Walton and family. Miss Ethel Lee was shopping in Monett, Monday.

Miss Dorothy Burke spent Sunday afternoon with Miss Alice Planchon.

Mr. and Mrs. Noel McCormick visited Sunday with Clyde McCormick and wife.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Higgins and Mr. and Mrs. Jess Weber spent Sunday at the home of Lee Weber and family.

PLEASANT DALE

Mrs. Chas. McCracken and children of Chelsea, Okla., are here on an extended visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. McCormick.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Powers, Mr. and Mrs. Cook Anderson visited, Sunday evening, with Mr. and Mrs. A. Hayse. Clifford and Joe Kenner spent Saturday night and Sunday with home folks at Aurora.

Misses Bessie and Nelle McCormick Edna and Mabel Timmons were the guests of Hazel and Pauline Pitts, Sunday afternoon.

Quite a number of young folks gathered at the home of Bessie and Nelle McCormick, Wednesday evening and spent a few hours very pleasantly dancing and playing games. The house was beautifully decorated with ferns and daisies. Refreshments of cake and ice cream were served to the following: Mr. and Mrs. W. T. McCormick, Mrs. S. B. Timmons, Misses Winnie Long, Fannie Combs, Florence Timmons, Ruby Miller, Hazel Pitts, Ethel Archdale, Bessie and Nelle McCormick, Mrs. J. J. Lauderdale and children, Messrs. Raymond Lipe, Clifford and Joe Kenner, Sid and Claude Timmons, Henry Long, Johnnie Combs and others. All departed at a late hour expressing themselves as having had a jolly good time.

JURY IN LYNCH CASE STILL OUT.

Attorneys on Both Sides Believe 12 Men Will Fail To Agree.

Greenfield, Mo., June 18.—The jury in the case of Mrs. Maude Lynch, charged with being an accessory of her son, Jay Lynch, in the murder of sheriff John W. Harlow at Lamar, March 3, failed to reach an agreement late tonight and attorneys for both sides intimated that a hung jury probably would result.

A FAREWELL SURPRISE

A large number of friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Lockhart, Tuesday evening, and gave them a farewell surprise. The family expect to leave in a short time for Tampico, Mex., to make their home.

While Mr. and Mrs. Lockhart were at choir practice at the church the crowd waited at their home for their return. They were hurried home from church by a telephone message telling them of unexpected company. They were greatly surprised on their arrival.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Trimble, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Jones, Mrs. N. C. Ketting, Mrs. Andy Hawkins, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Breeden, Mrs. E. B. Erickson, Mrs. Oscar McCaslin, Mrs. Crumrine, Mrs. B. A. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Shepherd, Mrs. McMahan, Mrs. Bridges, Mrs. J. J. Kenney, Mrs. M. Yoakum, Mr. and J. R. Andrews, Mrs. M. C. Goodwin, Mrs. S. T. Clutter, Mrs. Lewis, Mrs. M. J. Keithley, Mrs. N. Roe, Rev. Alden R. Wallace, Mrs. L. P. Thomas, Mrs. D. C. Blakeslee, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Lockhart, Misses Flora Crumrine, Hester Thomas, Blanche Blakeslee, Jennie McCormack, Gladys Lea, Grace Breeden, Mildred Kenney, Neva Shepherd, Fern Bridges Jewell and Fern Estes, Frances and Josie Lockhart, Margaret Reno, Ima Josephine Reed, Frances Dorman, Messrs. Burl Thomas, Horace Jones and Mrs. Wallace.

Music, games and a general good time was enjoyed by all present. Mr. Wallace, in behalf of their host of friends, presented to Mr. Lockhart an umbrella and to Mrs. Lockhart a two-piece set of silverware as tokens of friendship gained during their stay in Monett.

Refreshments of cake and lemonade were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Lockhart have been a great help in the church at this place and their friends wish them success and happiness in their new home.

HANDLES PIPELESS FURNACES

I haven't a carload of furnaces, but I have pipeless furnaces with all the modern equipment and which I guarantee to heat and be as good as material as any other make of pipeless furnace on the market.

The 48 size, 30x30 register for six or eight room houses are $200, installed not only for this month but for all other months unless the price should advance, which is not probable.

If you need a furnace of this description call and see them at C. E. C. E. VAUGHAN, Tinner. Vaughan's tin shop. 65tf
